

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Indian people of South Dakota comprise a major portion of the population of our state; and

WHEREAS, the Indian culture is a proud one which brings credit to South Dakotans of Indian extraction; and

WHEREAS, the Indian culture has enriched the lives of non-Indians as well as Indians in our state; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that all the people of South Dakota pause to pay special tribute to the contributions of Indian people to the advancement of our state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIF, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the day of Friday, June 25, 1971 as

and further urge all South Dakotans to pay special tribute to the Indian people of our state on that day and to take special note of their contributions to our broader society.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 24th day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-one.
